Dear Jim,

Thank you very much for delivering a dynamic, engaging and positive presentation to our middle school students. Like your previous presentations on substance abuse awareness and goal setting, this year's presentation on abuse of power, bullying and cyber-bullying captivated the students. It also sent an important and powerful message to students, and one that will serve them well throughout adolescence and into adulthood.

The abuse of power and bullying are two very challenging problems that young people face. Your presentation addressed those challenges and provided students with avenues to use their own power in positive ways. In addition, your suggestions for targets and bystanders were especially helpful and poignant. The addition of your magic always adds entertainment to your presentations and the kids love it!

Thanks again for coming in to speak with our students and for your continued dedication to educating students on the dangers of bullying. Thanks also to G.W. Jones Exchange Bank for sponsoring your presentation. It is with the support from you and from G.W. Jones Exchange Bank, that we are able to better educate and provide a safe environment for our students.

Sincerely,

Nanette Pauley
Principal
